

Percent Change

In 1990 a small town had a population of 5000, of whom 2500 were college graduates. In 2009 this same town had a population of 1000, of whom 800 were college graduates.

1. What percent of the town were college graduates in 1990?
2. What percent of the town were college graduates in 2009?
3. What was the change in the population of the town?
4. What was the percent change in the population of the town?
5. What was the change in the number of college graduates?
6. What was the percent change in the number of college graduates?
7. What was the change in the percent of college graduates?
8. What was the percent change in the percent of college graduates?