Lecture Time and Location:

Sections 13 – 18 and 26 meet MWF from 1:00 – 1:50 in CB 106 (Whitehall Classroom Building)

Sections 19 – 24 meet MWF from 3:00 – 3:50 in CB 118.

Check your schedule for the room and time of your recitation, which will be either on Tuesdays or on Thursdays.

Attendance and participation in lecture is required, and will primarily be assessed using Turning Point Clickers. Because of this, it is important to attend your assigned lecture. If you already own a clicker for another class you should use the same clicker for this class. Please register your clicker on Blackboard if you haven't already done so. If you have an absence for lecture for a university-sanctioned event, serious documented illness or other university-approved excuse, please keep the documentation. If you miss five or fewer classes, your clicker grades will be dropped automatically for those missed days. If you accumulate six such absences, turn in ALL the documentation within a week of the sixth missed class (and promptly for any thereafter).

Textbook: Calculus by Elliot Gootman (optional, but some students have found it helpful).

Course Help: Free tutoring is available in the Mathskeller, CB 063, M-F, 9-5, <http://www.mathskeller.com>.

Homework: Homework will be online through WebWork, which is free to students. Your login name is your link blue ID (for example, mine is ejwh226) and your password is initially your student ID without the leading 9. The first homework is due on the evening of Tuesday, September 1.

Exams

Exams will be given on THURSDAY EVENINGS. You should check the course website for room assignments based on your section number. If you have a legitimate conflict with an exam you can request an alternate time using the alternate exam form on the course website.
