

1. HOMEWORK 8

Edit your math department user page, using the information linked from the class webpage (under additional computer resources). Post your office number, office hours, the name of the course you're TAing this semester, and a link to some file or webpage.

Optional: make a real webpage on the math server with this information, and post a link to this page from your math department user page.

Due Monday, November 11.