

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

Math Movie of the Month

presents:

The Right Spin: an interview with
Astronaut Michael Foale
&
Porridge Pulleys and Pi:
two mathematical journeys

Double Feature: The Right Spin is an interview with Astronaut Michael Foale. The story of a dramatic rescue in space and the mathematics behind it. Narrated by Robert Osserman. Porridge Pulleys and Pi is a portrait of two very different mathematicians, featuring Fields medalist Vaughan Jones, one of the world's foremost knot theorists and an avid windsurfer, and Hendrik Lenstra, a number theorist with a passion for Homer and all things classical. Both movies are directed by George Csicsery. – 35 and 27 min.

Friday February 22nd, 2013
7:30pm in Classroom Building 118

For more information see: www.math.uky.edu/~movies