Course Expectations Students are expected to provide their own copies of recitation worksheets and participate in all class activities—recitation is not the time to do homework. Cellphones and laptops may only be used for purposes pertaining to recitation. Inappropriate use of technology (i.e Facebook, WeBWorK, studying for other classes, etc...) will result the user being recorded absent for the day—repeat offenders will be asked to leave the classroom. Students are expected to be courteous and to behave in a manner that promotes an effective learning environment.

Attendance Recitation attendance will be taken daily. In order to receive credit each day students must both show up and adhere to the course expectations. You are allowed at most 2 unexcused absences. See the course syllabus for policies regarding excused absences.

Homework Questions A few minutes of each recitation will be used to answer homework questions. Homework questions can also be asked during office hours or through email. Questions asked (by email) after 5:00 pm might not be answered until the next day.

Academic Integrity Refer to the Course Syllabus on the course webpage.

The university, college and department has a commitment to respect the dignity of all and to value differences among members of our academic community. There exists the role of discussion and debate in academic discovery and the right of all to respectfully disagree from time-to-time. Students clearly have the right to take reasoned exception and to voice opinions contrary to those offered by the instructor and/or other students (S.R. 6.1.2). Equally, a faculty member has the right—and the responsibility—to ensure that all academic discourse occurs in a context characterized by respect and civility. Obviously, the accepted level of civility would not include attacks of a personal nature or statements denigrating another on the basis of race, sex, religion, sexual orientation, age, national/regional origin or other such irrelevant factors. Students who are not respectful, not civil, or disruptive in any way may be asked to leave the class.
