Grading: There will be two 50-minute in-class exams during the semester each worth 20% of your grade, and a final exam worth 30% of your grade. Weekly quizzes will be given and will account for the final 10% of your grade. The quizzes may be given in any class and may not be announced in advance. Homework will count for the remaining 20% of your grade.

Calculators and Software: There is no required software for this course. I will demonstrate some applications occasionally for your own interest but you are not expected to use them on homework, quizzes or exams. Calculators are permitted on homework problems but they are prohibited on exams.

Homework: Homework can be accessed at http://webwork2.ms.uky.edu/webwork2/ma214-05

Accommodations due to disability: If you have a documented disability that requires academic accommodations, please contact me as soon as possible. In order to receive accommodations in this course, you need to provide me with a Letter of Accommodation for the Disability Resource Center, Room 2, Alumni Gym, 257-2754.

Attendance: Attendance is required and you are responsible for all lecture material and announcements made in class. Quizzes missed due to absence will not be allowed to be made up.

Academic integrity: Violations of academic integrity will be taken seriously and dealt with according to university regulations. Instances of cheating on exams include (but are not limited to) copying from or communicating with another student, bringing any kind of notes into the exam, and the use of an electronic aid. You are encouraged to work together on homework.

Classroom behavior: Students are expected to be attentive and courteous during class. During class, please put away newspapers, turn off cell phones, and refrain from using laptops or other electronic devices. You are expected to arrive on time and stay for the entire class. If you need to leave early, please let me know.

Approximate course schedule: The course schedule can be found on the website and is subject to change.
