

Homework #1

The first homework assignment is to polish up the notes on the Twelve Fold Way as we go through the various cases. It would be very nice if they could be placed in electronic form, but regardless, when we are finished with this topic, I will wish to see your notes and review them.