

MA 601
Homework #0
Due Monday, August 28

Welcome to the Math Department and your (probably) first teaching assignment with our department! The text for the course is online here: <https://www.maa.org/programs/students/student-resources/a-handbook-for-mathematics-teaching-assistants>.

Read the following sections, which contain some useful information as you launch your teaching.

2. Types of TA Assignments: Recitation, Lecture, Grading
3. Before You Teach: A Checklist
4. Day One
5. What Goes On in Recitation
28. The Semester in Five Minutes
25. Advice to International TAs
26. Some Silly Stuff
35. The Essence of Good Teaching

Also, write down your teaching schedule, including course numbers, times, and classroom locations, to give to me on Monday, August 28.
